ORDER:

In the G.O. 1st read above, the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams Board has been constituted afresh with Sri Y.V.Subba Reddy as Chairman and vide G.O. 2nd read above, members to the Board of Tirumla Tirupati Devasthanams have been appointed.

2) The Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams has dedicated itself to serving pilgrims who visit Tirumala and Tirupati and provides facilities to make their pilgrimage a unique and rewarding spiritual experience while also working towards preserving the serenity and sanctity of the sacred Tirumala-Tirupati area. Thus, the scope of TTDs' administration spans across fields of development works, engineering, finance and accounting, marketing, media and publication, forestry, water supply and human resource management. The scale and scope of these activities necessitates inclusion of special invitees who are experts from various fields. Moreover, it is the objective of the Government to position the State as a preferred tourism destination nationally and globally, as also detailed in the Andhra Pradesh Tourism Policy 2020-2025. Tirupati being the most visited place in the State by domestic tourists attracting over 36 million worshippers annually, shall vastly benefit with the addition of eminent personalities as special invitees to the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams.

3) In view of the above and in order to preserve the social, economic, religious and environmental character of the TTD and to abide by the principles of welfare for pilgrims, devotees and the public at large, the Government of Andhra Pradesh upon having carefully examined and deliberated on the matter in detail has felt the need for special invitees to the TTD. In order to further the spirit of the Act and to improve the welfare of devotees, the Government of Andhra Pradesh has found it necessary to appoint Special invitees to Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams.
